

ARTEAGA | GORZIGLIA

Arteaga Gorziglia appoints Santiago Portaluppi Fernández as New Director of the "Regulatory Law and Administrative Litigation" Practice

The law firm Arteaga Gorziglia has announced the appointment of Santiago Portaluppi Fernández as Director of its "Regulatory Law and Administrative Litigation" practice. Portaluppi, a lawyer from the Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile with the highest distinction, brings over 11 years of outstanding experience in public law, particularly in administrative litigation related to regulated sectors such as energy, electricity, gas, urban planning, and construction.

With a strong academic background, Portaluppi holds a Diploma in Sanctioning Law from the University of Valladolid, Spain (2022), a Diploma in Sanctioning Administrative Law (2020), and a Diploma in Environment and Sustainable Development (2018), both from the Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile. He is also an active member of the Chilean Administrative Law Association (ADAD).

Arteaga Gorziglia, with over 17 years of experience in the market, is recognized as a leading firm in various legal areas, including corporate law, tax law, regulatory law, and litigation. Its team of highly specialized lawyers advises clients in strategic sectors such as energy, infrastructure, agribusiness, manufacturing, retail, and telecommunications, addressing complex and highly relevant issues for the development of these industries in Chile.